Gilles,
your captain
Gilles began to sail in the Chesapeake Bay (USA) when he was 6 years old. He did a lot of Regattas in Europe with a good success (Young world champion of match racing 1997, turn around France winner 2004). Gilles passed his Captain license in 1994. He did a lot of cruises in the Mediterranean Sea then discovered the Caribbean's islands in 2000 at the end of the race Lorient-St Bart.

After many Atlantic crossing he decided to stay. For him, the Caribbean's are the best place for cruising on a sail yacht, because of the wind, the islands beauty and the great atmosphere.

On demand, Gilles is very happy to talk about the way he sails and the methods he use. You will discuss and plan with him the best cruise itinerary according to your preference, the places and the weather.

Laurent,
your captain
Having always been passionate about the sea, Laurent firstly devoted himself to surfing sport activities. After travelling on his first sailboat, he undertook maritime education and was awarded with his Captain 200 sailing and Captain 500 UMS certificates.

Over the last 15 years, Laurent has covered 150,000 nautical miles on the Atlantic, Pacific, The Channel, Indian Ocean and the Red Sea, with 15 sea crossings and as many seasons on the Mediterranean on chartered or private boats.

As an expert of the Mediterranean, Laurent combines comfort, security, listening and advising throughout your trip on board.

Christelle, your stew cook
Christelle's roots are in the beautiful, snow-capped mountains of France following a long and varied career as a sports instructor at mountain resorts, she moved to the south of France where she became involved in the hotel and restaurant industries.

In 2000 Christelle began working on yachts in the Mediterranean and Caribbean as stewardess and then as a chef and has since worked on several large, busy charter yachts, both sail and power, offering a high level of service.

She is delighted to be on Lady M where she is able to share with guests on a personal level her love of sailing while helping to create a memorable holiday experience with her talents in international cuisine and hospitality.

* Depending on the period, Lady M will be skipped by Gilles or by Laurent, both very experienced captains. Do not hesitate to contact us to know the periods.

Christelle will make you colourful and tasty dishes, by always using fresh, local produce. Her style is a cross between traditional Mediterranean and exotic flavors.

Christelle will be able to adapt to your culinary preferences and particular requests thanks to her knowledge of vegetarian and gluten-free cooking.

CUISINE

Traditional French and international cuisine. Elaborate dishes using seasonal produce. A Thai tendency if demanded and good knowledge of gluten-free and vegetarian cuisine.

EXAMPLES OF DISHES

Noix de St Jacques à la Tahitienne, Bouchée de poisson Thai à la vapeur, Crevette au curry et son riz Créole, Rougets salsa verde et ses légumes croquants, Verrines Banane-Coco, Pana cotta coulis aux fruits rouges...
